CORAM: S.C.DHARMADHIKARI J.
4th July, 2007

P.C.

1. Heard the learned A.G.P. for the petitioner/State. Perused the interlocutory order passed during the course of land acquisition reference. If the State is aggrieved by the final order on the reference it can always challenge the same and during the course of such challenge also impugn the directions issued by the Trial Court in the instant order. All contentions which are raised in the present petition are always available for the State for being so raised and adjudicated. Keeping all such contentions open, as and when they are sought to be raised, the present petition is summarily dismissed.
